The Shriver Peaceworker Fellowship is a graduate service-learning program that supports cohorts of 6-8 Returned Peace Corps Volunteers as they pursue graduate degrees, engage in community service in the greater Baltimore region, and participate in ongoing ethical reflection and leadership development. The Shriver Peaceworker Fellowship award package includes a tuition scholarship, living stipend, and health insurance. The Shriver Peaceworker Program is committed to building a culturally diverse and inclusive fellows community and encourages applications from minority candidates and groups underrepresented in their areas of graduate study and professional interest.

NOTE: Peaceworker applicants must apply separately to their chosen graduate degree program.
